

The Free State Foundation

A Free Market Think Tank For Maryland.....Because Ideas Matter

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Web Master, Public and Press Relations, Event Planning: The Free State Foundation has an opening on either a part-time or full basis for a person who can perform at least two, but preferably all three, of the above functions in an exceptional professional manner. Experience in press relations a definite plus, and top-notch interpersonal skills a must. Salary is commensurate with experience and the scope of responsibilities undertaken.

Senior Fellow: The Free State Foundation has an opening for a Senior Fellow. Flexible work arrangements are possible. Candidates for Senior Fellow must have an undergraduate degree and an advanced degree. Experience in regulatory economics or communications policy is required. The position involves extensive research and writing, so preference will be given to those candidates who can demonstrate convincingly they possess strong skills in these areas. Salary is commensurate with prior experience and demonstrated expertise.

Research Fellows and Research Assistants: The Free State Foundation has openings for a research fellow and a research assistant on a full-time or a part-time basis. Flexible work arrangements are possible. Candidates for Research Fellow and Research Assistant must have an undergraduate degree. A background in economics, communications policy, or regulatory policy is a definite plus. The positions involve primarily research and writing, so preference will be given to candidates who can demonstrate they possess strong skills in these areas. Salary is commensurate with level of experience.

Interns: The Free State Foundation has openings for a few part-time internships. Candidates presently may be pursuing either an undergraduate or advanced degree. Candidates should have an academic interest in public policy or law and strong research and writing skills. Experience relating to communications and Internet law and policy and regulatory affairs more generally is helpful but not required.
